

'Being the Church' - Part 9

by Rev. Robert Griffith

Over several months now we have been examining what it truly means to 'be the Church.' We have explored the characteristics of the early church and examined how they functioned and how different that might be to how we function today. Whenever we examine the New Testament Church we are confronted with the reality in which we find ourselves today and the stark differences between the two are unmistakable.

Now as important as it's been to embark upon this study and see the many areas we may like to revisit if we truly want to be the Church, we need to step back from the detail and ask the key question: how? How was all this possible? What was the secret of their success in establishing a Church which grew at a rate of 6,000% per year for more than two generations?

Did they just follow a plan and tick off the tasks each day? Did they simply decide one day that they would devote themselves to the Apostles teaching every day; and share deep, rich koinonia fellowship every day; and share meals with each other in their homes every day; and worship together every day? Were these things simply on their 'to do' list or part of some strategic plan and the rest just happened? The answer is a resounding no. Human beings lack the capacity to discipline themselves to follow a list of tasks for that long and God only blesses and grows what comes from our hearts. The rest is just works-based religion and God hates religion.

So what was it that allowed our forebears to get it so right for so long and have such an incredible impact on the world around them? Well, it was not a 'what' ... it was a 'Who' that made all this possible. This 'Who' is mentioned in almost every one of the 28 chapters in the book of Acts and multiple times in many chapters. Of course I am speaking about God, the Holy Spirit. Everything about the early Church which made it powerful, effective, real, world-changing and dynamic – was initiated by the Holy Spirit. The people were simply responsible for listening to, discerning the presence of and then responding positively to the Holy Spirit.

This should not surprise us, because the One Who birthed this miracle of the Church, Jesus Christ, operated exactly the same way! Long before the book of Acts and the birth of the Church, Jesus modeled this to His disciples. Jesus Himself is the one perfect manifestation in history of the complete work of the Holy Spirit in and through a human being. Jesus was begotten of the Holy Spirit. He is the only begotten Son of God. It was entirely by the Spirit's power working in Mary that the Son of God was formed within her.

Jesus led a holy life and offered Himself without spot to God through the working of the Holy Spirit. We read in Heb. 9:14, "How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God." Jesus met and overcame temptations as other men and women may meet and overcome them - in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus was anointed and fitted for service by the Holy Spirit. We read this in Acts 10:38, "How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with Him."

In Luke's account of the earthly life of our Lord we read "And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and there went out a fame of Him through all the region round about." (Luke 9:14)

In a similar way Jesus said of Himself when speaking in the synagogue in Nazareth, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach good new to the poor; He has sent Me to proclaim freedom to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." (Luke 9:18-19).

All these passages contain the one truth: it was by the anointing of the Holy Spirit that Jesus Christ was qualified for the service to which God had called Him. As He stood in the Jordan after His baptism, "The Holy Spirit descended and rested upon Him like a dove," and it was then and there that He was anointed with the Holy Spirit and equipped for the service that lay before Him. Jesus received His equipping for service in the same way that we receive ours - by the Holy Spirit. Jesus was taught by the Spirit who rested upon Him. The Spirit of God was the source of His wisdom, direction and power whilst on earth.

In the Old Testament prophecy of the coming Messiah we read in Isaiah 11:2-3 "And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD. And shall make Him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and He shall not judge after the sight of His eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of His ears."

Further on in Isaiah 17:1 we read, "Behold My servant, whom I uphold; My chosen in whom My soul delights; I have put My Spirit upon Him ..." Matthew tells us that this prophecy was fulfilled in Jesus of Nazareth (Matthew 12:17-18).

The Holy Spirit abode upon Jesus in all His fullness and the words He spoke in consequence were the very words of God. We read in John 3:34, "For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God: for He gives not the Spirit by measure." After His resurrection, Jesus gave a commandment to His Apostles whom He had chosen through the Holy Spirit. We read in Acts 1:2, "Until the day in which He was taken up, after that He through the Holy Spirit had given commandment to the Apostles whom He had chosen." This relates to the time after His resurrection and so we see Jesus still working in the power of the Holy Spirit even after His resurrection from the dead.

Jesus performed His miracles here on earth in the power of the Holy Spirit. In Matthew 12:28, we read, "I cast out devils by the power of the Spirit of God." It was by the power of the Holy Spirit that Jesus was raised from the dead. We read in Romans 8:11, "But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwells in you." The same Spirit who is to quicken our mortal bodies and is to raise us up in some future day, raised up Jesus.

Several things are plainly evident from this study of the work of the Holy Spirit in Jesus Christ: First of all, we see the completeness of His humanity. He lived, He thought, He worked, He taught, He conquered sin and won victories for God in the power of that very same Spirit whom it is our privilege also to have. In the second place, we see our own utter dependence upon the Holy Spirit. If it was in the power of the Holy Spirit that Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, lived and worked, achieved and triumphed, how much more dependent are we upon the Spirit at every turn of life and in every phase of service and every experience of conflict with Satan and sin?

The third thing that is evident is the wondrous world of privilege, blessing, victory and conquest that is open to us. The same Spirit by which Jesus was originally begotten, is in us so we can be begotten again (born again) of Him. The same Spirit by which Jesus offered Himself without spot to God is in us so we may offer ourselves without spot to Him.

The same Spirit by which Jesus was anointed for service is in us so we may be anointed for service. The same Spirit Who led Jesus Christ in His movements here on earth is ready to lead us today. The same Spirit Who taught Jesus and imparted to Him wisdom and understanding, counsel and might, and knowledge and the fear of the Lord is here to teach us. Jesus Christ is our pattern (1 John 2:6), "the first born among many brethren" (Rom. 8:29). Whatever He realized through the Holy Spirit is for us to realize also today.

Now we can understand why the book of Acts is full of references to the Holy Spirit. The miracle of the Church and its impact on the world came in direct proportion to the people's knowledge of and submission to the Spirit. There are actually 45 verses in Acts which highlight the work of the Holy Spirit. Without that moment by moment work of the Spirit, there would be no Acts of the Apostles.

If we read through the book of Acts we see for ourselves just how prominent the Holy Spirit was. In the very first chapter of Acts we find Jesus warning the disciples to not do anything until they have the Holy Spirit.

Acts 1:4-5,8

"... (Jesus) ... gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

Why did Jesus tell them to wait? Because without the Holy Spirit we are aimless and dangerous. We are ineffective. We are powerless. We are disconnected from heaven and the power of God. All we have is religion and a man-made institution which is powerless to change the world. Jesus had taught these disciples so much over the past three years and they had a lot of knowledge and experience now. But the main thing He taught them was that He achieved nothing apart from the Holy Spirit. Everything in His ministry was in response to the Spirit's leading and empowering. The disciples knew that, so they waited for that power from on high before attempting anything in Jesus' name. If only the modern Church would do the same. If only we would wait for that power from on high before we race off into our ministries and plans in Jesus' name.

Here are all the other references to the Holy Spirit in the Book of Acts:

How much clearer can it be? Everything Jesus did, was in response to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Everything the Church which Jesus' birthed did, was empowered by the Holy Spirit. He was their constant guide. He was their only source of discernment about what they should speak and what they should do every day. He was the source of all their power, wisdom, truth and the Holy Spirit was the reason why anything they did actually bore fruit and impacted the world.

Wherever the Holy Spirit moved and God's people responded, lives and families and communities were transformed. The success and impact of the early Church was unprecedented before and since that time. Nowhere else in history do we have such a powerful example of the transforming power of a group of ordinary people on the society around them. It was extraordinary and it was all because of the work of the Holy Spirit.

But ... we must understand something about the Holy Spirit – He will not barge in and take over. The only reason the Holy Spirit was so powerful and so effective and so present in the life of Jesus is because Jesus chose to submit Himself to the Spirit daily. Jesus could have spoken and acted on His own, but He chose to speak only the words His Father gave Him to speak, through the Spirit and He chose only to do what He saw the Father doing, which was revealed to Him by the Holy Spirit.

The only reason the early Church exploded across the world like a raging bushfire, capturing the hearts and lives of millions of people is because those early disciples submitted themselves to the Holy Spirit every single day and allowed the Spirit of Christ, the head of the Church, to call all the shots – right down to their day by day instructions about where to minister and what to say!

Since the day I arrived in Lismore, and for many years prior to that, I have been pleading with my brothers and sisters in Christ and especially those in leadership in the Body of Christ to give the Church back to God.

The book of Acts shows us what the Church will look like and be like whenever we have the courage to loosen our grip on what is not ours and never was. When we get over our demonic, irrational fear of the Holy Spirit and actually trust Him the way Jesus did and the way the early disciples did, then what we see in the life of Christ and the early Church will become our reality.

Jesus said, “I will build my Church ...” and there is only one way He can do that - directly and deliberately through His Spirit. When we let go of the reigns of the Church we have built and let the Holy Spirit take the lead in every area of our lives and ministry, then we will finally see the Church Jesus is building and we will be writing another book of Acts, just as powerful, confronting and mind-boggling as the first one written by Luke.

Jesus told His disciples to wait and not to go anywhere or do anything in His name until they received power from on high – until the Holy Spirit was released in their midst to guide them and empower this new Church. Jesus knew what would happen if they raced off in their own strength and tried to save the world with nothing but hearts full of good intentions. They would have ended up with a powerless, ineffective, marginalized, shrinking, irrelevant Church ... does that sound familiar? It should.

Perhaps it's time we burned all our Church growth books and cancelled our 'how-to' seminars and just decided to heed Jesus' warning again. Maybe we need to shut down every ministry of the Church we have built – close it all down – and wait in prayer, for as long as it takes, doing nothing else, until we receive that power from on high – until the Holy Spirit once again takes up the reigns of the Church Jesus is building and directs our every word and action. Now I know that won't happen, but we all need our dreams ... and that's mine.

The bottom line is this – and it's embarrassingly simple. When you look at the life and ministry of Jesus earth and the life and ministry of the early Church He birthed, you cannot avoid the fact that the sovereign presence, power and moment-by-moment reality of the Holy Spirit is the only reason Jesus and the early disciples achieved anything at all. And the fact that, with the Holy Spirit, they achieved so much – turning the whole world upside down – should be our strongest motivation and greatest encouragement to follow their lead.

If we truly want to be the Church, then we have to let it go – we have to give the Church back to God as we allow the Holy Spirit His rightful place once again in our hearts, our committees, our conferences, our worship services, our ministries and our communities. Then, and only then, will we be the Church that Jesus promised to build.

Come, Holy Spirit.
